MARCUS DALY'S 1899 PLANS.

HAMILTON, MONT., February 21.—Marcus Daly will make one of his old-time eastern campaigns this year. There will not be any Butte or Anaconda meeting. The Daly horses will leave here Thursday for New York. The plan is to send them in a lot with Manager Mossom and Veterinary Haggard. William Lakeland will prepare quarters for them. He is to train eight of the twenty-six which go east. This band goes to Sheephead Bay. Mossom is to have eighteen. They go to Sheephead also. A special stable is to be prepared for the Daly string.

OLD IVANHOE'S RACING.

In looking over your interesting table published in DAILY RACING FORM February 14, 1899, I see that an error in Goodwin's Guide for 1890, had made you credit "Ivanhoe" with twenty-nine races run during the year when Ivanhoe (late Lemon), had only run eighteen races. In 1890 Lemon was five years old and the races he ran that year as Ivanhoe, were indexed to a two-year-old Ivanhoe, by Bramble—Leah Z., so that eleven of the races indexed to Ivanhoe were races run by the two-year-old and the four wins only were races run by the five-year-old. I had corrected my guide and looked this horse up thoroughly or should not have discovered the error. While it is of no importance, I know above all things you like to be accurate and the question might come up before you in some way at some future time.

W. A. KIRWAN.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Horse Trainer and Farmer H. Eugene Leigh, just now of Louisville, Ky., is not pleased at James E. Cushing's declaration that if he (Leigh) can train racehorses, he (Cushing) can preach. Writing from his present quarters, Leigh says of the Cushing criticism: "I'm not surprised at Mr. Cushing's question as to my ability as a trainer. It was on my recommendation that he holds his present place as trainer for himself. During the fall sales of 1892 at Lexington, Ky., Cushing asked me, plaintively, where he could find a trainer. I knew that he was rather fastidious—I am verbally merciful—about such matters. I told him that I knew one man that would suit him exactly. Pressed for details, I gave him the name of James E. Cushing. I had reasons for it. My fellow-trainers, 'Mouzeltoff' Roller, 'Espionage' Ezell and 'Boney Boy' Bradley, had declared thoroughbreds to be racing machines. Cushing had had several years' experience training Senator Sabin's threshing machines and had inspected boilers for the great state of Minnesota. Such work I thought should have put him in line. It was good advice. Boundless won the $60,000 American Derby the next year. I am glad to see that Cushing has held his situation as long as he has. Any other boss would not have 'stood him.' (That Derby purse has lasted Cushing a long time. I think that he is bad, but that John Madden is worse than he as a trainer. I don't question Madden's ability to sell, mind you. But he cannot train a parrot.

"Coulter's almost as bad as both. If I went into details—I am naturally a protectionist, because of the glass house and stones adage—Cushing, Madden, Coulter & Co. would come into the view of the Jockey Club and the American Turf Congress. The result would be an official request to put their horses into my hands—or other hands that were competent—or retire for the turf's good and the public's financial health."

T. W. Coulter, who is here for a few days before an expedition to San Francisco, saw Mr. Leigh's band of horses at Louisville. He said, yesterday: "Leigh's got a grand looking lot. If it was in the hands of a competent man, it ought to earn a lot of money in 1899. But it isn't in good hands. I repeat that I fired Leigh for incompetency and Pat Dunne discharged the man for the same lack of quality."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

With such fast and staying horses as David Tenny, Buckwa, What'er Lou, Adolph Spreckels, The Bachelor and Mistletoe named to start in the four mile journey for the Thornton Stakes at Oakland this afternoon no one need be surprised if all records at the distance are wiped out. At any rate a very great race is in prospect. Last year Judge Denny, with 115 pounds in the saddle, won this event running the distance in 7:20. Marplot, $6, finishing second and The Bachelor, 112, third. This year higher class horses are in contention, and the track is perhaps the fastest in the country. If all the nine named to start go to the post it will be a remarkable thing in the history of four mile racing.

J. Naglee Burk's big sprinter Bellicoso burst a blood vessel and died at the Oakland track Sunday. He was by Peel—Janet N., and when at his best was a very fast horse as his record of seven furlongs in 1:26 with 120 pounds up, made over the old Bay District track attests. As a two-year-old he won the Kenwood Stakes at Washington Park defeating Handsome, Laureate, Salvation, Montre, Rey del Careres, Sun Up and Silver.

Record making and breaking is going on at a great rate over the Oakland track. Yesterday Dunois clipped a full second from the record at seven and a half furlongs. It was previously held by Mamie Scott, she having gone the distance in 1:38.7 over the Bay District track October 17, 1895.

It is said that most of the young horses stabled at Ingleside are coughing. The cold spell following so quickly on the summer-like heat of a couple of weeks ago, is said to be responsible for the ailment, which is of a mild type.

Mr. W. C. Whitney's first foal of his own breeding was dropped at La Belle Farm Monday last. It is a bay colt by Meddler—Kildeer and is pronounced an extra fine looker by competent judges.

Billy Lakeland recently visited the Bitter Root stock farm and selected seven two-year-olds and Isidor to take east. Scottish Chieftain and several other youngsters will be sent on later.

Jockey C. Sloan has been suspended by the judges at Oakland, pending an investigation of the race in which Abuse was beaten, by Tammany Hall II.

John J. McCafferty has sold Loiterer, 4, by Marden—Lucille, to John Powers, of Memphis, Tenn., who is forming a racing stable.

A. R. L., St. Louis, Mo.—The top weight horse of the Inaugural Handicap of 1898 was Saturna, 120 pounds.

THE AMERICAN JUMPERS' DERBY.

The Grand National Steeplechase to be run at Morris Park May 20, should be the greatest race of its kind ever seen in this country. With its $5,000 added money it will have a gross value of between $8,000 and $9,000, which exceeds anything in the monetary line our timber toppers have ever had a chance to try for. Because of its importance and the interest that is bound to attach to its decision, the entries are here printed. They will serve to show that quite a number of new candidates will be out this year for honors at the jumping game, and are as follows:

Sunup, ch. h. 7, by Buchanan—Sunlight.

Maurice, b. h. 7, by Rayon d'Or—Maurine.

Winner—Br. c, by Harry O'Fallon—Nylepha.
Off at first break to a good start. Won handily; next two driving. Prince Harry made a show of his field and won as he pleased. He is a fair sort of a colt. The next two fought it out hard. Odum was but little help to Falcon Light. He ran a good race and will bear watching. Throw out Tendresse's race. It was very bad. Fintan and Powell can do better.

Squan and Voyageur were pulled up when the start was made. School Girl stumbled at the start. Tully, who rode Prince Hal, escaped with a severe shaking and some bruises.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop. Caslin was much the best. He had to be with the ride he got. He was cut off at the start and ridden all over the track after that. Mouzeltoff tired in the stretch. She was heavily played. Willie Howard showed a flash of speed on the far turn.

Off at first break to a fair start. Won cleverly. Simon D., with a track to his order, tiptoed his field, but was put to a mild drive in the last furlong. Halton and Gath tired in the run home. Locust Blossom was in the heavy going all the way. She ran the best race of the party. Redskin and Jake Zimmerman are of little account.

Start fair. Won easily. Socialist was the best and is in good form. He came away easily in the last furlong. Two Cheers ran his race and finished strongly. Bliss Rucker was away in front and lucky throughout. He is wind broken and not to be depended upon. Henry C. ran to the mark. Heritage will probably be improved by the race and will do to watch in ordinary company. Mainbar showed speed to the stretch and may do better soon.
